

Europe Trip 2015

The Brereton's explored London, England, then went to Kinsale, Ireland, and finally finished off in the beautiful Mallorca, Spain!

Come and join us on our trip! Here we will post the pictures from our trip, as well as blurbs on what we did while we were there. Along with the photos there will also be reviews of the tour guides, and agencies we used. I will also have the links posted for the airlines and travel agencies we used to hopefully help you plan your next adventure!
